Appropriation Transfer(s)

1. Funds from Contingency were necessary to cover remaining rental payments for voting machines in Board of Elections. Due to the unexpected U.S. Fourth Circuit Court ruling to expand early voting from a 10-day period to a 17-day period and the decision by the Forsyth County Board of Elections to include two additional remote early voting sites, these additional funds were required.

2. The Tax Administration Office requested a transfer from Contingency to pay for additional interest payments stemming from appeals to the Property Tax Commission. Previously these payments have been made differently and it was determined they needed to be paid out of a separate account which required this transfer from Contingency. In addition, Contingency funds were requested in order to increase the contract for Zaccehus Legal Services to clear up some older foreclosure listings.
